eFiling is here

The Clerk of the Superior Court's Office in conjunction with Superior Court Administration are continuing the new General Civil Electronic Filing Pilot Program.

The Clerk's Office is presenting free one-and-a-half hour training sessions to provide specific details about the program, answer questions, and demonstrate how the system will operate. Law firms who have a designated case for the program are invited to send as many representatives as they wish to a demonstration. In addition, anyone interested in knowing more about eFiling is also invited to attend any of the sessions.

Following are the times and dates of upcoming sessions. The sessions are being held in the new Downtown Justice Center, 620 W. Jackson, 3rd floor, Clerk of the Court Training Room, Suite 3048. Free parking for the sessions is available across the street from the Downtown Justice Center in the Jackson Street Parking Garage, 601 W. Jackson St.
